Foreword

As an exile on the island of Patmos, John looked across the expanse of the sea toward Ephesus where his fellow believers lived. The sea posed an impossible barrier, preventing all contact with those whom he loved.

To John was given the revelation of the seven things that would be no more in the New Jerusalem: sea, tears, mourning, crying, pain, curse or night (Revelation 21: 1-4; 22: 1-5). But, the first thing God brings to his attention as “no more” is the sea.

A “sea” now separates us from those ministers who are remembered in this memorial booklet. These dedicated men and women of God laid the foundation for this Movement, and we are reaping the benefit of their love and labor for the Lord. They served the Lord in their generation and have passed to us the torch of privilege and responsibility in this Pentecostal Movement.

With the apostle John, we eagerly await the day when the sea will be no more! There is going to be a meeting in the air, a great moment of reunion!

I encourage you to use this booklet as a reminder to pray for the family members of these ministers, to give thanks to the Lord for the heritage they have provided us, to examine your own commitment in light of their example, and to stimulate your hope in Christ who promised that death would not be God’s last word.

Maranatha!

George O. Wood, General Secretary

Ziemann, Edwin G. . . . .30

*Should I ask you back?
We miss you here, yet faith rejoices
That you have joined those heavenly voices;
Nature sees the body dead,
But faith beholds the spirit fled.
Nature stops at Jordan's tide,
But faith beholds the other side.*

*So you are gone; now life seems black.
And shall I ask to have you back?
Back - and leave the Spirit's brightness?
Back - and leave your robes of whiteness?
Back - and leave the Rock who feeds you?
Back - from springs to where He leads you?
Back - and leave your Heavenly Father?
Back to earth and sin?*

*No, rather,
I would resign to solitude,
I would not ask you back if I could,
But patient wait my risen Lord
Till nature cuts this silver cord;
And He who fashions all things new
Shall bring my spirit home to you.*
