Memoriam
2001-2003*

*Honoring Our Departed
Assemblies of God Ministers*

Honoring

Assemblies of God ministers who have passed on to their reward, as reported to the General Secretary's office for the period June 1, 2001 to June 1, 2003.

Regrettably, not all ministers who died during this period are pictured in this memorial book because photographs were unavailable at press time.

Appreciation

This publication was made possible through the efforts of many people:

The Board of Administration:

Thomas E. Trask, General Superintendent
Charles T. Crabtree, Assistant General Superintendent
George O. Wood, General Secretary
James K. Bridges, General Treasurer

The Flower Pentecostal Heritage Staff:

Wayne Warner
Joyce Lee
Glenn Gohr
Brett Pavia
Sharon Rasnake
Faye Williams

Linda Reece and the Assemblies of God Secretariat staff

The 58 District Secretaries and their secretaries

The many individuals who provided photographs

Foreword

As an exile on the island of Patmos, John looked across the expanse of the sea toward Ephesus where his fellow believers lived. The sea posed an impossible barrier, preventing all contact with those whom he loved.

To John was given the revelation of the seven things that would be no more in the New Jerusalem: sea, tears, mourning, crying, pain, curse or night (Revelation 21:1-4; 22:1-5). But, the first thing God brings to his attention as “no more” is the sea.

A “sea” now separates us from those ministers who are remembered in this memorial booklet. These dedicated men and women of God laid the foundation for this Movement, and we are reaping the benefit of their love and labor for the Lord. They served the Lord in their generation and have passed to us the torch of privilege and responsibility in this Pentecostal Movement.

With the apostle John, we eagerly await the day when the sea will be no more! There is going to be a meeting in the air, a great moment of reunion!

I encourage you to use this booklet as a reminder to pray for the family members of these ministers, to give thanks to the Lord for the heritage they have provided us, to examine your own commitment in light of their example, and to stimulate your hope in Christ who promised that death would not be God's last word.

Maranatha!

The Lord himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be with the Lord forever. Therefore encourage each other with these words.

God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change; the courage to change the things I can; and the wisdom to know the difference.

Living one day at a time; enjoying one moment at a time; accepting hardship as the pathway to peace. Taking, as Jesus did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it. Trusting that He will make all things right if I surrender to His will, that I may be reasonably happy in this life, and supremely happy with Him forever in the next.

He has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Christ Jesus from the dead, and into an inheritance that can never perish, spoil or fade—kept in heaven for you, who through faith are shielded by God's power until the coming of the salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time. . . . Safely Home

*I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright!*

*There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.*

*All the pain and grief are over,
Every restless
tossing passed;*

*I am now at peace
forever,
Safely home in Heaven at last.*
