

In Memoriam 2009-2011

Honoring Our Departed
Assemblies of God Ministers

In Memoriam 2009-2011

HONORING ASSEMBLIES OF GOD MINISTERS who have passed on to their reward, as reported to the General Secretary's office for the period of June 1, 2009 to May 31, 2011. Regrettably, not all ministers who died during this period are pictured in this memorial book because photographs were unavailable at press time.

Dear Friends,

Within the pages of this In Memoriam book are the names and faces of people who have played irreplaceable roles in our lives personally and in the life of our Fellowship globally.

For years I have been fascinated with the inscription on the old Staunton Harold Church in Leicestershire, England:

"In the year of 1653, when all things sacred were throughout the nation destroyed or profaned, this church was built by Sir Robert Shirley, whose singular praise it was to have done the best things in the worst times."

The people that we honor in this memorial book represent nearly forty thousand cumulative years of active ministry. Like in seventeenth century England, these people have built Christ's church at a time when, indeed, "all things sacred were throughout the nation destroyed or profaned."

Under their leadership the Assemblies of God in America has grown dramatically—through the Great Depression and World War II, on through the social and technological upheavals of the late twentieth century and finally into the uncertainties of the twenty-first century. These ministers and friends have truly done the "best things in the worst times."

We are who we are because of them. They did not stand on our shoulders, but we stand on theirs. We are now reaping where they have sown. They prayed through on our behalf, and we are living in the blessing of their spiritual investment. They sacrificed and took risks to lay the foundations on which we are now building.

We honor each one of them, and miss them. May the Lord touch your heart in a special way if perhaps you find within these pages a father or a mother, a brother or a sister, a son or a daughter, a pastor or a friend. We thank God for each one of these who have been such an invaluable part of your life.

God bless you!

The Final Flight

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the end of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah, yes, these things too I will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
